“THINGS YA’LL NEED TO KNOW”

The horse shows are limited to ONLY HORSES STABLED IN THE BARNS. We strive to make our horse events safe and promote a family atmosphere. It is a privilege to have the opportunity to lease the 4-H park facilities, so please respect and follow their rules. A list of 4-H park rules and Street Fair Horse & Pony rules will be posted throughout the barns and buildings.

*****Check-In - NEW in 2018*******

All participants must check-in on Friday, September 14th between 5-9 pm. Committee members will be setup near the Quonset and rabbit buildings. You need to pick up your numbers at this time. If you do not, you will not be permitted to show at the fair. For some reason you cannot be there at that time, you need to make prior arrangements to check-in with Cathy Neu.

Identification/Emergency Information

For identification and emergency contact information, all stalls are required to have an I.D. card attached somewhere on the front of the stall. These cards will be distributed upon final stall assignment. On the back of that card please list the person(s) responsible for the care of that horse, emergency phone number(s), color, gender, and any health concerns of the horse that should be monitored (cribber, prone to colic, heavy sleeper, etc.)

Grounds & Safety

All participants are urged to be aware of any safety concerns and overall conditions of the grounds while being used by the Street Fair Horse & Pony exhibitors during Fair week. Please alert any committee member in regards to any conditions that seem unsafe, or any damages to stalls, buildings, grounds, etc.

Emergency Shelter

In case of an emergency evacuation, we are to seek shelter in the Community Center building.

Carry-Ins/Food

Since relocating to the 4-H Park, there have been no food vendors to supply exhibitors. This has prompted us to find alternate ways to provide limited meals during our stay. The meals that we have scheduled for the week are as follows; suppers will be “carry-in” format with the main dish provided with the Street Fair Horse & Pony funds raised:
